*Annual Report
July 06 ~ June 07*

In the 2006-07 fiscal year, Family Tree served 31,148 persons.

13,832 individuals received face-to-face services from Family Tree, while 17,316 people were assisted via our information and crisis hotlines.

CEO Letter

Dear Friends and Supporters of Family Tree:

Family Tree's employees and volunteers work tirelessly to help children and youth who are abused or neglected, women and children survivors of domestic violence and families who are without a roof and walls to call home. We work so hard to help our clients become safe, strong and self-reliant. This past year we were able to employ new resources to make our efforts more efficient and effective, but we also said goodbye to a person who has played a major role in shaping and leading our organization, and another who generously gave his time and money to aid us in the work we do.

Former Denver Bronco quarterback, Jake Plummer, discovered Family Tree's services three years ago and quickly made the agency one of his top philanthropic beneficiaries. Annually, he and many of his teammates would take dozens of Family Tree clients shopping so their holidays would be just a little brighter. He raised money and made significant financial contributions to the agency, and he gave his time each spring to provide the keynote address at our annual Celebration of Achievement event. Family Tree is grateful for his years of generous support.

In the spirit of an annual report - reporting on the agency's recently completed year - I rightfully should not be writing this letter. Ruth Ann Russell, Family Tree's longtime leader, retired on June 30, 2007 and the past year was completed under her watchful eye. She guided the agency with a passion most of us have rarely experienced. Her wisdom and experience have been, and will be missed; however her immeasurable contributions to the agency during her tenure have truly left a lasting Family Tree legacy.

During the past fiscal year Family Tree was the recipient of two grants through the Department of Justice Office of Violence Against Women. One grant assists us in providing victims of domestic violence with transitional housing services and the other, a collaborative with Jefferson County Community Development and other community partners, enhances our supervised visitation and exchange services of children by parents in situations involving domestic violence and child abuse. Both of these grants vitally enrich the continuum of care Family Tree provides to our community, to help people overcome child abuse, domestic violence and homelessness.

We work tirelessly to help make our community a better place to live, and we thank each of you for your contribution toward this effort. We're also grateful for the new tools that enable us to better provide services to our community. But like many of our not-for-profit partners serving those who need help most, we idealistically reach for the day when our services are no longer needed. Last year Family Tree served more than 31,000 people and provided youth and families more than 25,000 nights of shelter - both all-time highs. Every one of these persons required Family Tree's help in a unique way, and we're proud of our ability to meet clients' needs and help them along the path to self sufficiency. But the need for agencies like Family Tree is not diminishing.

We appreciate your continued support, and trust that the information in this annual report will provide you a sense of the good work accomplished by Family Tree during the past year.

For safe families,

A handwritten signature in black ink, appearing to read "Scott Shields". The signature is fluid and cursive.

Scott Shields
Chief Executive Officer

The MISSION of Family Tree is to help people overcome child abuse, domestic violence and homelessness to become safe, strong and self-reliant.

The VISION of Family Tree is to be the best provider of life changing services that end child abuse, domestic violence and homelessness.

Family Tree VALUES commitment, integrity, accountability, diversity, collaboration and advocacy.

Children's Services

Family Tree serves children and adolescents who have been abused or neglected and are not safe in their homes, and youth who are homeless on the streets or have run away from home. We serve youth who are at risk of being removed from their homes due to behavioral problems. We assist families with child abuse reports in an effort to stabilize those families, and we help families who are caring for family members, not their own children, when parents are unable to do so.

Domestic Violence Services

Family Tree serves adult and child victims of domestic violence, sexual assault and stalking; families who have experienced the break-up of their homes through divorce or separation; and children who have witnessed family violence and/or have experienced abuse in their homes.

Homelessness Services

Family Tree serves adult individuals, youth and families who are homeless or are at risk of homelessness. We assist persons who have very low to no incomes and are working toward goals to increase their self-sufficiency.

One Wish . . .

Ana wishes for the yelling and screaming at home to stop.

Jacob wishes for a warm bed, so he and his mom don't have to sleep on the floor.

Karen wishes for a safe place for herself and her children while she tries to find stability.
