DENVER BRONCOS Brandon McManus and teammates to provide shopping spree for families served by Family Tree

[THORNTON, CO] (December 6, 2019) – Twenty families served by Family Tree will be paired with a Denver Broncos player to shop for their holiday gifts and groceries at Walmart at 6pm on Tuesday, December 10, 2019.

Broncos Kicker Brandon McManus and his foundation, Project McManus, have teamed with Walmart to host this special shopping spree.

Tuesday's shopping trip is part of Family Tree Holidays of Hope, a giving program to help give Family Tree individuals and families a holiday season they otherwise would not have. Family Tree serves nearly 5,000 people a year with direct, face-to-face services. For families and children served by Family Tree, the holidays can be an anxious and stressful time - for kids separated from their families, people seeking safety from domestic violence, and families who desperately need housing. Family Tree donors brighten the holidays for those in need through Family Tree Holidays of Hope.

Project McManus supports causes that affect and impact at-risk and disadvantaged youth. Founder and Chairman, Brandon McManus has seen firsthand the impacts of providing families with resources, programmatic activity, and assistance.

McManus shares, "I am grateful to have the opportunity to play football on this stage, and give back to those who need it most. I started Project McManus with the goal of creating change for families facing hardship and challenging circumstances."
